

Everything ready for the RAIN.BOW project Final Conference

Brussels will be the scenario of the Final Conference of the RAIN.BOW (Raise Against Intolerance, New Bridges On the Web) project. A day to discover the #RainbowErasmusPlus and participate on the conferences, workshops and networking cafés sharing international insights on polarisation, hate speech and European Values.

From 9h to 17h on the 28th of September we will meet at the European Economic and Social Committee (Rue Van Maerlant 2 1000 Brussels - map) for inspiration day for an international future where everybody interested in internationalisation is welcome!

The Final Conference will also be the starting point of the European Values Campaign with the presentation of the works done by the young participants in the Kranevo Summer Camp.

Come and join us on the 28th and find out how you can integrate these topics in your school or your classroom and learn about cooperating and participating in international projects like Erasmus+ or eTwinning projects.

Discover everything that happened in the #RainbowErasmusPlus Summer Camp

During a full week around 40 students between 14 and 19 years old together with 25 teachers and role models have worked cooperatively, exchanged multicultural points of view, visited Varna and Kranevo and had fun together!

The results of this experience are the products that will be launched as a part of the European Values Campaign during the Final Conference on the 28th of September.
